AT the Court at St. James's the 20th Day of January, 1722.

PRESENT,

The King's Moſt-Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable William Pulteney, Eſq; Lieutenant of the East-Riding of the County of York and Town of Kingſton upon Hull and County of the ſame; he this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Turin, Jan. 17. The Guards are expected from Suza to be compleated and new cloathed againſt the approaching Marriage, after which 'tis ſaid they are to remain in Garriſon here. The Regiment of Fuſileers commanded by the Marqueſs de Suza is to march to Vercelli, to receive the Princeſs of Sultzbach in her Paſſage through that Place. The Governour of Milan would not ſuffer the Count de Saluces to paſs through that State without performing a Quarantain of eight Days. It is thought here that this Exactneſs on ſuch an Occaſion might have been diſpenſed with, there not being the leaſt Suſpicion of any Infection in this King's Dominions. The Cardinal de Rohan arrived here on the 15th Inſtant, and after waiting on the King, proceeded this Morning towards France. P. S. It is ſaid the Count de Saluces has with much Difficulty obtained a Reduction of the Quarantain to five Days.

Paris, Jan. 28. The Duke d'Oſſuna having fixed his Departure for Spain to the 24th, he received a Courier that Morning from his Court with Directons to remain here till further Orders, he is now looking out for a Houſe in order to quit the Hôtel of the Ambaſſadours, where he has hitherto been entertained at the King's Expence, which gives reaſon to believe that the Duke of Bournonville will not come ſo ſoon hither as was expected. The King has made a Preſent to the Duke d'Oſſuna of his Picture richly ſet with Diamonds. M. de Chavigny the French Envoy at Genoa has received Orders to go to the Court of Spain. M. Fagon Counſellour of State, was made ſome Days ago one of the Royal Counſellours of the Finances. The Marqueſs de Villeroy is made Duke and Peer of France, upon the Reſignation of his Father the Marſhal of that Name; who has reſerved to himſelf the Title with the Prerogatives at the Court: The Son has taken on him the Name of Duke of Retz. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court the 22d of January, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

The Gevaudan. M. de Rothe, in his Letter of the 5th of January, confirms the Decreaſe of the Diſtemper in general. At Alais but 10 had died from the 1ſt to the 3d inclusive. At Salindres, one died on the 4th. At Mende only four died and none fell ſick during the three laſt Days of December. For 21 Days paſt there have been only ordinary Diſeaſes at Marvejols. M. Bernard who commands at Alais, writes the 2d of January, that on that Day there were in the Infirmaries but 32 ſick, and 18 recovering. M. Vieuſſin a Phyſician writes the 5th of January, that the Diſtemper is turned into a malignant Fever, and grows more and more favourable at Alais. M. Bailly and le Moyne Phyſicians at Marvejols, in theirs of the 29th of December aſſure us, that ſince the 10th of December none had fallen ſick. They were going to begin the Diſinfection, or perfuming of Houſes; and they hoped that the Precautions taken againſt Communication, will ſtop the Progreſs of the Diſtemper, whoſe Malignity leſſens every where very viſibly.

The Comtat. M. de Vedrilles the commanding Officer at Montdragon, in his of the 4th and 7th of January ſends two Letters from Avignon dated the 26th and 31ſt of December, importing, that the Diſtemper continues there; but that the Violence of its Malignity is very much abated. Commiſſary Laurent writes the 5th of January, that the Plague decreaſes conſiderably at Avignon, and the other Towns of the Comtat, and that Bedarides is intirely freed from it.

Dauphiné. M. de Bolrieu, in his of the 4th of January adviſes, that all the Places of Dauphiné continue in a perfect State of Health.

Provence. M. de Bret writes the 3d of January, that Beſſe and Roquebruſſanne are much better. Alauch is likewiſe in a better Condition, having not had any Perſon taken ill in eight or nine Days together. The little Accidents which had alarmed Ollioules and St. Nazere, have paſſed without ill Conſequences; as have alſo thoſe at la Seyne and Pignam.

Tho' the Decreaſe of the Plague in the Gevaudan and other Places which were infected be certain; it has been judged proper however to take new Meaſures for preventing all Communication of the ſuſpected Country with the neighbouring Provinces: A Line is formed along the River Orbe, from its Source in Roucrgue down to the Sea, and from thence to Adde; the Goods and Perſons deſigned to paſs from Montpellier and thereabonts into other Parts of France, can go no other Way than through Beſieres, where they muſt perform 30 Days Quarantain. Another Line is formed from about Langeac to Tournon, by the Way of le Puy and St. Greve, to prevent the paſſing of any Perſon or Goods from the Vivaretz (tho' that Country be in good Health) into the Velay, and into Forets, without performing the like Quarantain. By Means of theſe Precautions that are uſed ſeparately and without any Dependance on the Line which incloſes the Gevaudan and the Sevennes, and which is ſtill guarded very ſtrictly, Commerce may be carried on in the neighbouring Provinces without Danger.

General-Poſt Office, London, Jan. 20, 1721-22.

Whereas the Perſon who is now in Dorcheſter Goal upon Suſpicion of having robbed the Weſtern Mail near Yeovil, in the County of Somerſet, the 8th Inſtant at Night, had a Blank Ticket in the late State Lottery found upon him; This is to deſire, that the Perſon who is the Owner of it will give Notice to the Poſt-Maſter-General of the Number of the ſaid Ticket, that it may be reſtored to him.

Jan. 19, 1721-22.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That the General Court of the ſaid Company which was held this Day at Merchant-Taylor's Hall, in Threadneedle-Street, London, ſtands adjourned to Wedneſday the 24th Inſtant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the ſame Place.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt-Indies do hereby give Notice, That a General Court of the ſaid Company will be holden at the Eaſt-India-Houſe in Leaden-Hall-Street, London, To Morrow the 24th of this Inſtant January, at Eleven in the Forenoon, according to the Appointment of the laſt General Court.
